Become a more effective leader with TGEU's Transfeminine Leaders Academy

article, trans activists

Join the Transfeminine Leaders Academy and elevate your skills as an emerging leader! This programme aims to boost your abilities in sustainable organising and leadership, perfect for those looking to lead or join local or regional trans movements and advocate for the rights and wellbeing of trans communities in the EU.

The Transfeminine Leaders Academy is more than a training session; it is a comprehensive programme specifically designed for the needs of the participants. Through the application process, we aim to understand your needs and shape the programme to enhance your leadership skills.

Programme overview

- A three-day in-person training programme in Berlin (24-26 October 2024)
- Peer learning and a final retreat for participants (Spring 2025)

Participants will benefit from

- Courses developed by experts who are also trans activists
- Access to a network of transfeminine leaders and gender diverse activists
- Tools and resources to help define your purpose as a leader
- Skills to address community challenges and leading teams/projects
- Support from the TGEU team
- Improved ability to combat gender inequalities and discrimination and contribute to trans rights

Eligibility criteria

- You self-identify as a transfeminine person
- You are a member of TGEU (or be applying to become one)
- You are based in and/or operate in the European Union;
- You are ble to attend the full programme. This includes the training in October 2024, peer-learning and the final retreat in 2025.

Priority will be given to people from marginalised communities and underrepresented countries. Feel free to share more about your background when applying. All information will remain confidential.

How to apply

Simply complete the online form (approximately 20 minutes) by Sunday 21 July, 23:59 CEST.

apply now