Transgender Day Of Remembrance (TDoR)

protection from violence and hate

Every year on Trans Day of Remembrance (TDoR), held on the 20th of November, we remember and honour the lives of trans and gender-diverse people reported murdered in the last 12 months.

On this occasion, TGEU and our partners are launching a website in 13 languages with resources for event organisers, including posters and images available for editing through Canva, as well as an organiser pack containing materials related to TDoR events. The list of names of the trans and gender-diverse people who were killed this past year can also be found in English and Spanish.

Join our campaign to raise awareness about the Trans Day of Remembrance and to fight against violence.
