KEY RESOURCES

Resources on community support

- ‘Rainbow Bridges’ is a booklet about how communities can better support LGBTI refugees. <http://bit.ly/2bFp1uy> (ORAM)
- The Irish BeLonG To collected important principles for working with LGBT asylum seekers and refugees. <http://bit.ly/2bRoTeM> (BeLonG To)
- ‘Inclusivity’ is a guide for LGBTQ and trans communities to improve their work with Black, Asian and minority ethnic trans people. (Sabah Choudrey & GIREs) <http://bit.ly/1XrRIxg>
- This is an intersectionality toolkit for LGBTQI young people’s organizations on including many different groups in their work, such as people with disabilities, racial and ethnic minorities, or women. <http://bit.ly/2bJctwY> (IGLYO)

- ‘Safety’ and ‘Solidarity’ are practical tools for communities supporting LGBTI asylum seekers and for those seeking to build links with other organizations and communities involved in trans asylum work <http://bit.ly/2bBgmw9> and <http://bit.ly/2caS0g2> (Equality Network)

Resources on legal standards

- TGEU has two booklets about trans rights in the European Union, which have sections on the rights of trans asylum seekers and refugees. This is the shorter version: <http://bit.ly/2cFzyZt>. This is the longer version: <http://bit.ly/2bQdbyr>. (TGEU)
- The UN refugee agency’s (UNHCR) guidelines explain how governments need to treat LGBTI asylum seekers and refugees. You can use this resource in your advocacy work. <http://www.unhcr.org/50ae466f9.pdf> (UNHCR)

- This is a detailed report about LGBTI asylum seekers and refugees worldwide. <http://www.refworld.org/docid/566140454.html> (UNHCR)
- This legal guide on sexual orientation and gender identity based refugee claims is a useful resource if you want to support a trans asylum seeker’s case as lawyers or activists. <http://bit.ly/2bAbUjU> (International Commission of Jurists)
- The CREDO manual is about how authorities can make sure that an asylum claim is credible. There is a chapter about LGBTI asylum cases. If someone you know is treated badly in their asylum procedure, this is a useful resource for you to intervene. <http://bit.ly/2bB8I1B> (CREDO project)
- ‘Sanctuary’ is a brief guide you can use if you are advising trans asylum seekers about asylum applications. <http://bit.ly/2bAh5R9> (Equality Network)
- This factsheet explains rules about asylum cases that all EU governments must respect. <http://bit.ly/162mAIw> (European Commission)

- These are recommendations by the Council of Europe about how European countries should treat LGBTI people. One section is about asylum seekers and refugees. <http://bit.ly/2bUfBhD> (Council of Europe)
- This guidebook is for lawyers who are helping LGBTQI asylum seekers get refugee status. It will soon be published here: <http://bit.ly/2cPWSCP>. (Council of Europe, UNHCR)
