Only if our movement stands in solidarity with everyone, including migrants, people of colour and sex workers, can we begin to overcome the violence and transphobic hatred against our communities.

The Trans Murder Monitoring project of Transgender Europe recorded a total of 2,264 killings of trans people in 68 countries worldwide from 1 January 2008 to 30 September 2016.

Produced with financial support from the Federal Foreign Office of Germany. Its contents are the sole responsibility of TGEU.