Trans sex workers demand an end to transmisogyny, racism, and xenophobia.

Transmisogyny
- Discrimination in education, employment, housing, and healthcare
- Exclusion from legal sex work without legal gender recognition
- Arbitrary fining, detention, and high incarceration rates
- Police harassment (reported by 75% of trans sex workers in Turkey)
- Lack of access to justice and victim support

Racism
- Family rejection, lack of support systems, homelessness
- Lack of identification documents matching gender identity
- Discrimination in hiring and at the workplace
- Increased mental and physical health problems due to anti-trans violence
- Frequent mistreatment in health settings and lack of access to general and trans-specific healthcare

Xenophobia
- Family rejection and homelessness
- Discrimination, bullying, and violence in education and employment
- Countries seeming to offer more opportunities
- Criminalisation of migration
- Mistreatment in the asylum system
- Social isolation
- Criminalisation of engagement in sex work
- Lack of access to housing, healthcare, employment, justice, and social benefits

Participation in sex work among people of colour

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th>Black</th>
<th>Latinx</th>
<th>Asian</th>
<th>White</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Europe</td>
<td>44.1%</td>
<td>33.2%</td>
<td>11%</td>
<td>6.3%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>U.S.</td>
<td>72%</td>
<td>9%</td>
<td>2%</td>
<td>17%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>